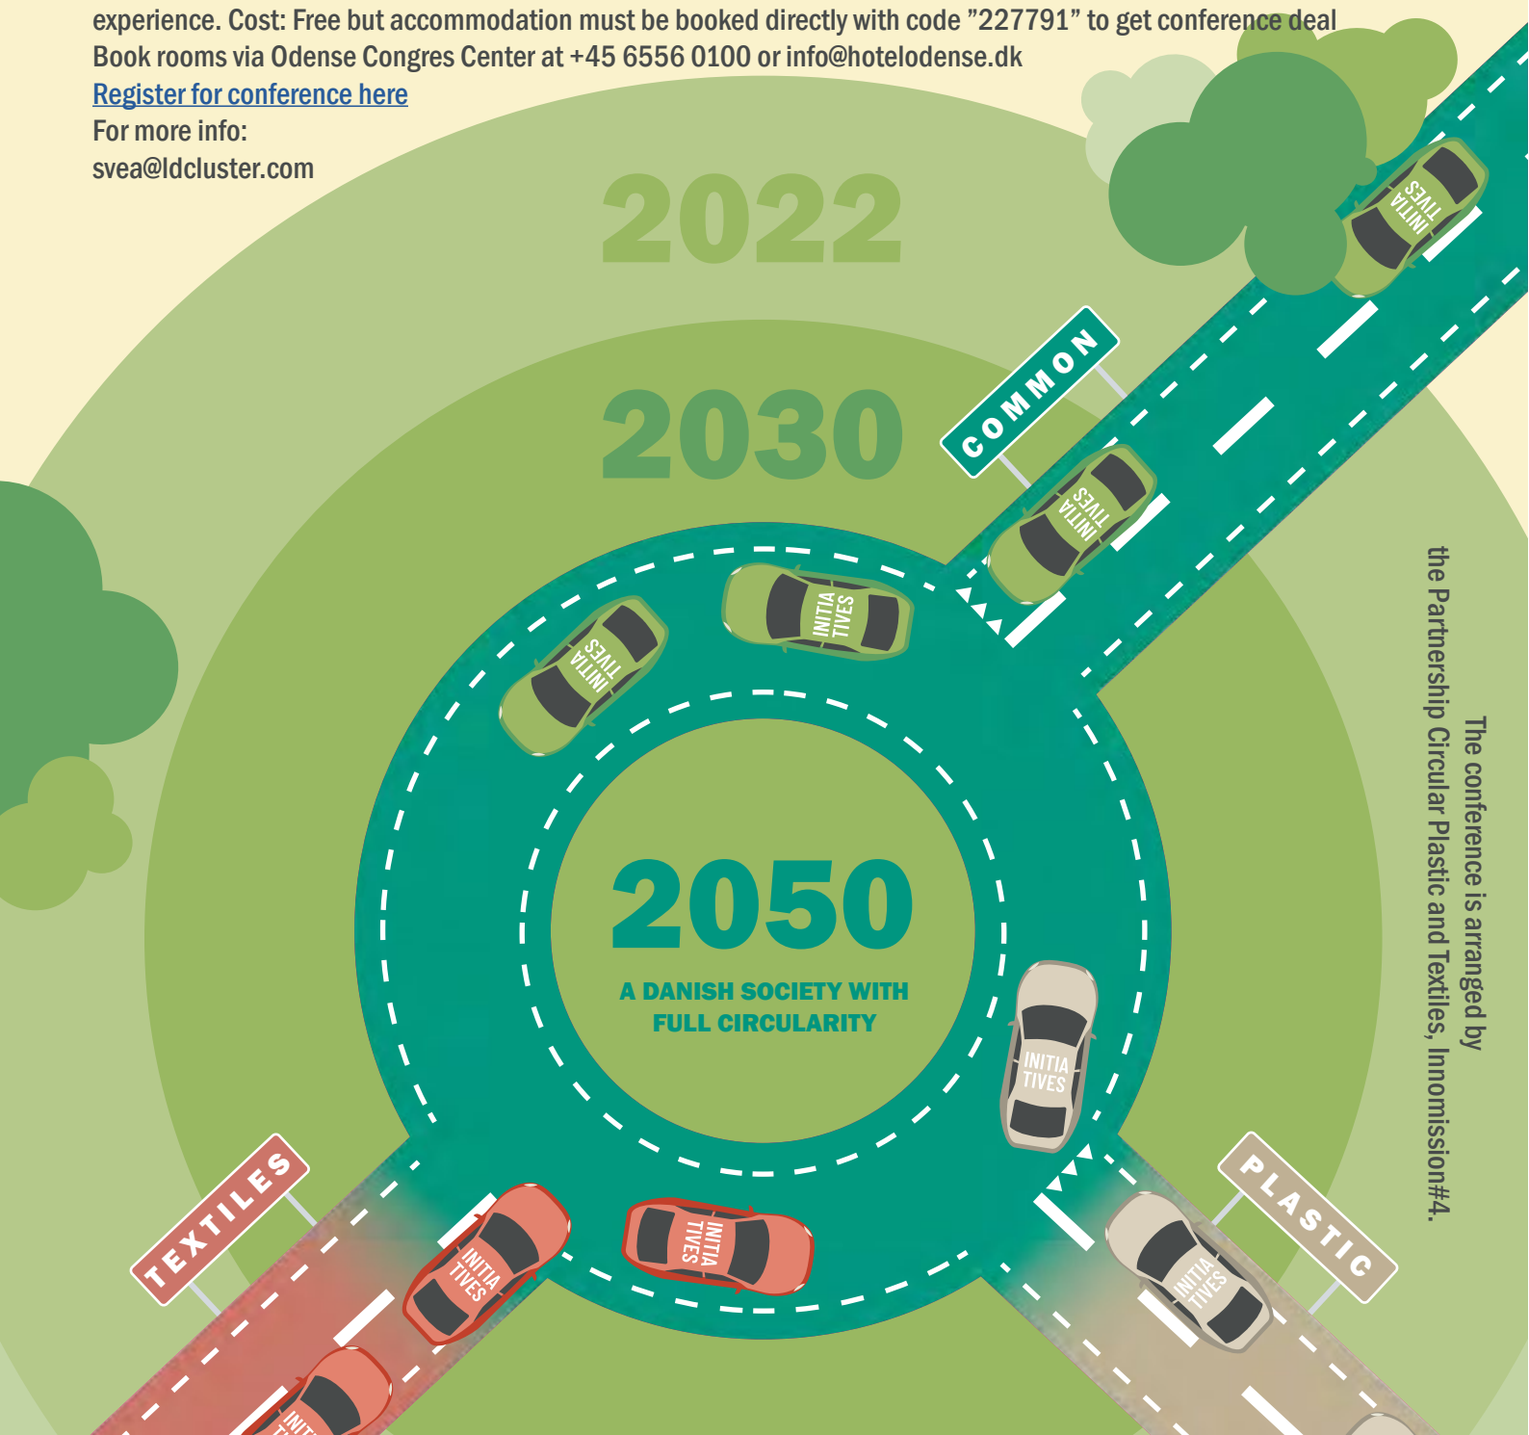
CONFERENCE:

Build partnerships within circular economy of plastic and textiles

Join danish researchers and companies within plastic and textiles to explore how we can accelerate the circular economy, build partnerships and set topics for future research projects.
The conference will build on the work from the roadmap towards a circular plastic and textile future.

When: 11th and 12th (until lunch) of May at Odense Kongres Center.
Who should participate: Calling all entrepreneurs, SME's & large corporations, leading researcher within the field, NGO, relevant public companies and offices. Your input is vital to shape the future of research and innovation for circular economy within plastic and textiles. Book your place now, and stay the night for the full networking and knowledge sharing experience. Cost: Free but accommodation must be booked directly with code "227791" to get conference deal
Book rooms via Odense Congres Center at +45 6556 0100 or info@hotelodense.dk
Register for conference here
For more info:
svea@ldcluster.com



The conference is arranged by the Partnership Circular Plastic and Textiles, Innomission#4.